EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Daniel Tanner, III on 8/18/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claims 1, 2 and 5 have been replaced by:

Art Unit: 2871

1. (Currently Amended) An apparatus to arrange spacers at fixed points on a display substrate utilizing a spacer dispersion solution that includes the spacers dispersed in a solvent, the apparatus comprising:

a nozzle head to discharge discharging the spacer dispersion solution from a plurality of nozzle holes, while scanning along a predetermined scanning direction, the plurality of nozzle holes being arranged at a prodetermined non-zero angle with respect to a direction perpendicular to the scanning direction.

2. (Currently Amended) An apparatus to arrange spacers at fixed points on a display substrate utilizing a spacer dispersion solution that includes the spacers dispersed in a solvent, the apparatus comprising:

a nozzle head to discharge discharging the spacer dispersion solution from a plurality of nozzle holes, while scanning along a predetermined scanning direction, the nozzle head being rotatable rotated such that an arrangement direction of the plurality of nozzle holes is inclined at a predetermined non-zero angle with respect to a direction perpendicular to the scanning direction.

5. (Currently Amended) A liquid crystal device, comprising:

a pair of substrates arranged to face each other with a sealing material interposed therebetween;

liquid crystal and spacers injected into a space surrounded by the pair of substrates and the sealing material, and the space is sealed, one of the pair of substrates having a plurality of pixel regions and non-pixel regions formed around the pixel regions, the spacers being arranged in a straight line at a prodetermined non-zero angle with respect to an arrangement direction of the pixel regions in plan view; and a portion of the spacers being located at intersections of the non-pixel regions and another portion of the spacers being arranged at locations other than intersections of the non-pixel regions.

Art Unit: 2871

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

None of the prior art taught or suggested an apparatus which arranges spacers at fixed points on a display substrate where a nozzle head which discharges spacers in a solution from a plurality of holes was at an angle or inclined (ie., non-zero angle) to the scanning direction.

None of the prior art taught or suggested liquid crystal device with spacers which were injected (as opposed to lithographically formed) at fixed points on a display substrate in a straight line at a non-zero angle to the arrangement of the pixel regions with some at the intersections of the non-pixel regions and some not.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Kenneth A. Parker whose telephone number is 571-272-2298. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 10:30-6:00.
